

Press Release
The Centaurus Mall
051-8483017

On this auspicious occasion of Eid-ul-Azha, The Centaurus Mall, Islamabad presents the exhibition of Ghilaf-e-Kaaba and oldest Quranic scripts. The display features Ghilaf-e-Kaaba and more than twenty oldest Quranic manuscripts every produced from various countries; Turkey, Afghanistan, Chinese, Kashmiri and Persian.

Celebrated for their superb calligraphy and lavish golden illumination, these manuscripts span almost 700 years of history – from 14th century Quran Written in Khat e Bihar, Persian Dalail-al-Khayrat in 17th century, Safvi Quran in 16th century, Quran wirrten in Gold by Mughals in 17th century, verses in Chinese with stamp to 18th century Quran written in Kashmiri and many other oldest scripts.

This landmark exhibition in the Centaurus Mall tells the visitors stories of these extraordinary scripts and their makers. Visitors will come to know how the Qur'an was actually transformed from an orally transmitted message to the illuminated written form.
